GILLOM ATHLETICS PERFORMANCE CENTER

In the spring of 1996, ground was broken for the construction of a new multisport facility, and in July 1997, the complex, the Gillom Athletics Performance Center, ushered in a new era in women's athletics at Ole Miss.

The facility, which was built on the University's intramural fields on Hathorn Road near Highway 6, is a metal structure with a brick front similar to other campus edifices. Right off the court are locker rooms and a team lounge and meeting room. The team meeting room and lounge provides the volleyball program with a place to congregate during non-practice times and can serve as a home away from home for the team. Athletes watch TV, study or play games, including a pool table in the volleyball team room.

On April 28, 2000, the complex was dedicated as the Gillom Center in honor of Rebel basketball legends Peggie and Jennifer Gillom. The Gillom sisters are the top two scorers in the history of the program.

The volleyball portion of the Gillom Center experienced upgrades prior to the 2010 season, with the playing court being moved and additional grandstand seating added to the facility. Chairback seating was added to the north side of the court behind the team benches to completely surround the playing surface with fans.

The facility recently underwent another extensive renovation that was completed in the summer of 2017. Updates to the facility included additions to the volleyball competition area, a weight room and training room and two video rooms for teams to watch film. The building houses offices and locker rooms for the rifle, soccer, softball and volleyball programs.

Over the years, the Gillom Center has become a tough venue on visiting teams thanks to a vocal and supportive fan base. The 2017 season saw a record 13,168 fans coming to the Gillom Athletics Performance Center, setting a single-season attendance record. In 2018, back-to-back at-capacity attendance records were set in Gillom. A staggering 1,057 fans were in attendance on October 19 vs. Florida, and then two days later, the record was broken again with 1,207 fans packed into Gillom to see Ole Miss pick up a 3-1 victory over in-state rival Mississippi State. In 2021, the Rebels once again raised the bar. Gillom was over full capacity as 1,251 fans piled in to cheer on Ole Miss, who took defending National Champions Kentucky to five sets before ultimately falling 2-3.

With the growth of the sport, Ole Miss has continued to roll out all the stops. In 2023, the Rebels debuted a new Taraflex court, providing an elite competition space for their student athletes. Ole Miss' Taraflex court features a faux wood pattern outlined in the Rebels' signature Powder Blue. For fans, new lighting effects for starting lineups and an additional concessions point of sale were also added to enhance the matchday experience.

BRE HENRY

THE SCOOP

With national championship pedigree as both an athlete and coach, Bre Henry leads the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in her third season as head coach in 2024.

Over the course of her seven seasons as a graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach, Henry helped produce four All-Americans, 12 All-Region honorees and won the 2017 NCAA crown with Nebraska. Throughout her entire career, she has either been mentored by or worked alongside some of the top coaches in the nation, such as John Cook (Nebraska), Matt Ulmer (Oregon) and Erin Lindsey (Santa Clara), among others.

In her first full season as head coach and second with the Rebels, Henry changed the culture of the program. She created an environment where student-athletes and staff became a family and fell in love with the game of volleyball while still competing at a high level in the SEC.

In 2023, the Rebels finished with an 11-18 record, including a 5-13 mark in conference play. Under Henry, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. Among those with offensive success were Anna Bair, who wrapped up her Ole Miss career with the fifth most kills by any player in school history, and Julia Dyess, who led the Rebels in kills in SEC play and finished with a breakout junior season. She helped Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch rank inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC while recording 100 blocks. The two middle blockers also entered the top five in program history in total blocks with a chance to be the two best to ever wear a Rebel uniform at their position.

Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively after ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in digs per set a season ago. In 2023, Henry and defensive coach Taylor Gregory guided the defense to average 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC. Leading the way was libero Cammy Niesen, ranking third in the conference with her 4.04 digs per set. In total, the Rebels created one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC).

Henry joined the Ole Miss staff as assistant coach prior to the 2022 season and was named acting head coach for the final 11 matches. After a national search in the offseason, she was the clear choice to guide the Rebel volleyball team into the future and was named permanent head coach on Friday, December 9, 2022, by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter.

Working primarily as the defensive coordinator until her promotion, Henry helped middle blocker Sasha Ratliff earn her second All-SEC and AVCA South All-Region nod and guided Payton Brgoch to the fourth-most blocks in a single season in program history. She was also instrumental in the growth of a young Rebel team that saw three freshmen see significant playing time at setter, libero hitter. Under her guidance, they garnered multiple SEC weekly honors, and Aly Borellis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Henry spent three seasons as an assistant at Santa Clara. During her time with the Broncos, Santa Clara produced three AVCA All-Region selections, 12 All-WCC accolades and 10 WCC all-academic nods. A proven defensive mind, Santa Clara led the WCC and ranked 10th nationally with 326.5 total blocks.

Henry began her coaching career as a graduate assistant with one of the nation's elite programs at Nebraska. In two seasons, the Huskers went 62-11, winning the 2017 NCAA title and finishing as runner-up in 2018 while producing four All-Americans and six all-conference selections.

A former standout student-athlete at Long Beach State, Henry played both indoor and beach volleyball, earning ACVA All-American Honors for the 2014 indoor season and winning the 2013 beach National Championship. She helped lead the 49ers to a 27-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark in the Big West Conference during her senior campaign. After graduating, Henry continued her playing career professionally in the Philippines and Switzerland in 2015 and 2016.

A Redding, California, native, Henry studied kinesiology as an undergraduate student at Long Beach State before earning a master's in sports and exercise psychology from Argosy University in 2016 and a master's in education administration from Nebraska in 2017.

Henry and her husband John reside in Oxford with their children, Quinn and Jones.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Ole Miss made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2006 under head coach Joe Getzin. The following season he helped guide the Rebels back to the Big Dance; however it wouldn't be until 2010 that they make an appearance in the Championship Tournamnet. In 2021, Ole Miss snapped an 11 year drought, punching a ticket to its fourth-ever NCAA Tournament with one of the best seasons in program history. As it stands, the Rebels are still searching for their first Tournamnet victory.
